Sanae Khaar Khaar is a Persian song, sung to honor a god (Khawarij) and a deity on the occasion of the arrival of Surya. It is the most famous of the five songs made by men to commemorate the arrival of the suryatars to the Persian nation. It is also said to have been written by Surya himself in Persia; but there is some evidence to the contrary. The poet has not been the greatest of poets of his era. He was born after the fall of the Qarnathar dynasty; and it has been supposed that he was a student of Akhyar (Harmattan) who reigned after Akhmânt-Nisargadatta (946 B.C.E.), the last great king of the Persians. Akhmânt-Nisargadatta, however is said to have had as a friend the daughter of an ancient Persian king of Kârâd-ešârâ (Havara), and was an ardent promoter of Persian education.
